Bobby Hood Broke What Looked Like a Hopeless Tie.

FINE PITCHERS'

Splendid Exhibition of National Game in Spite of the Wrangling.

Just about the time the Liamaycalled on account of darkness after twelve innings of play and with the score tied 4-4, Bobbie Hood, the fast Fairmont infielder, covering third base for Idamay last evening, flattened out to Dawson. Black flied to Ridgely. Fillingham singled, Miller singled to If Beveridge was safe at home when the first run, it was a covered the first run, it was on a Gehb offering and got all the way to the third cushion defore the ball was returned. It was Beveridge's privilege to make his third safe hit of the game and score the winning run. Score, Collegians, 4; Idamay, 5.

With an assortment of something hich apparently was hard to hit but lich looked like mush to the spectators in the grandstand, Gehb, the vis-iting mound artist, was able to work out of some tight pinches.

Fans who attended the game wers given a rare treat of catching. Both cress and Talkington, backstops for Kress and Talkington, backstops for the Collegians and Idamay, respectively, were all that could be expected and performed with much merit throughout the game.

Old "Bill" Ridgely, the "Hans" Wagner of Marion county baseball, also deserves special mention for his efficient work in right field. Once he threw out a base runner after he had made a single to right field and one other time he made a perfect throw to third base which cut off another run. In the first inning, the Collegians, who by the way are advertised as being a team which "never kicks" on an umpire's decision, displayed a rare bit of unsportsmanlike tactics in protesting Umpire Toothman's accident. of unsportsmanlike tactics in protest-ing Umpire Toothman's decision when Roonew struck out. It was necessary for Deputy Sheriff John Glover and Policeman Howard Woodward to interfere before the Collegian left fielder regained his senses. The score by innings:
